Women, Power and Leadership

Location: University of Tennessee, Knoxville
Duration: Four Days
Tuition: $3500 (includes materials, breakfast and lunch)

Program fees are subject to change. Check our website: http://ExecEd.utk.edu for the latest information.
Class size is limited.

Who Should Attend?
- Women professionals in early-career and mid-career positions interested in continued career growth
- Women returning to the workforce after a hiatus wanting to re-engage in networking and business concepts
- Women wanting to increase their leadership presence and learn new ways of influencing and communicating

Program Overview:
Women, Power and Leadership uses interactive learning, reflective exercises, lectures, and experiential simulations to enhance participant learning.

Key Participant Benefits:
By enrolling in Women, Power and Leadership, you will:
- Receive feedback on your strengths as a leader
- Practice negotiation skills that will help you reach agreements and manage conflict
- Develop a personal brand
- Practice speaking in high-pressure situations
- Identify strategies for work/life balance
- Map your future career goals

You will leave the course with an individualized action plan for improving and capitalizing on your unique leadership skills in support of your career aspirations.

Faculty
Kate Atchley, Ph.D., is a Distinguished Lecturer and the director of the Executive MBA Program for the College of Business Administration at the University of Tennessee. She is an Industrial/Organizational Psychologist and specializes in leadership assessment and executive development. Kate teaches in the College’s MBA programs, as well as the Center for Executive Education. She is also the managing partner of the Tennessee Assessment Center, a consulting firm specializing in the selection and development of managers and executives. Kate has consulted for various companies both nationally and in Southeast Asia including Shinawatra Company, Inc.; Ruby Tuesday, Inc.; Tennessee Valley Authority; Boeing; Lockheed Martin Energy Systems; and BellSouth. She has presented research and symposia at a variety of national and professional conferences and has been nominated for the Physician’s Executive MBA Outstanding Teacher eight years in a row and the Al Keally Outstanding Lecturer Award. Kate received her doctorate in Industrial/Organizational Psychology from the University of Tennessee.

Facilities
Classes are held in the executive classrooms of the University of Tennessee Center for Executive Education. This course also is offered as a custom... course on the Knoxville campus or at an organization’s preferred location. Accommodations are single-occupancy rooms at a nearby hotel.

Contact

Mark Bucco, Director
Center for Executive Education
College of Business Administration
The University of Tennessee
603 Haslam Business Building
1000 Volunteer Boulevard
Knoxville, TN 37996-4160

Phone: (865) 974-5001
FAX: (865) 974-4989
E-mail: ExecEd@utk.edu

For current news on the Center of Executive Education and its offerings, visit our web site at http://ExecEd.utk.edu